The Dutch steamer Barussia, from Hamburgh, arrived at New York on the 15th inst. with St. Domingo dates to the 31 inst. She brings intelligence that a revolution is in progress in St Domingo, growing out of the WHEAT-Winter Spanish treaty, which favors the ascendancy of the Spaniaris. The Spaniards being the most numerous, wished to hoist the Spanish flag again, and citizens and soldiers were hastening to the Spanish Consul to get registered POTATOES. 1,004,25 arisen in consequence. All tribunals were closed business suspended, and the President and Cabinet threatening to resign.

Foreigners and liberals were looking anxiously for a government vessel to protect them .-The liberals said the Spanish flug should never again be heisted there.

The Spanish Consul was opposing the ratification of the American treaty, and thwarting the American Consul in all his measures.

The News complains of the Shanghair disturbing their meetings, and says the Buchanan men do no such things.
